What if my child gets upset?

There is a team of chaplains on site ready to talk with anyone at any time. Some of these people the kids may know as their youth pastor or school chaplains or another adult from their church.

Sometimes kids just aren't coping too well. This could be from a difficult interaction in their group, or from something that happened at home, or just that they are having an off day. The chaplains are always more than happy to have a chat. Maybe over a milo (cool of course), or while they do some craft or kick a ball around. Encourage your child to talk to a chaplain or go to the prayer tent if they want someone to talk to.

I would love for my child to be a camper, but I simply can't afford it. Is there any way they could attend?

There are always a small number of sponsored spaces for campers, generously donated by local groups or individuals. If you would like to apply for one of these places, please email mucdaycamp@gmail.com telling us the reasons why you would like to be considered. This will be treated strictly confidentially and we will contact you as soon as possible to discuss further.
